CARDIAC SCIENCE, INC.	)

NOW COMES DONALD C. HUTCHINS and upon being duly sworn, states that:

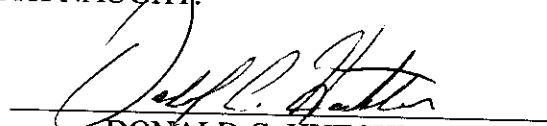

1. I am over 18 years of age and have personal knowledge of the matters attested to herein.
2. I believe that I am likely to succeed on the merits of this case because Cardiac Science, owed a duty to me and all the parties to use due diligence in the purchase of my intellectual properties as part of the purchase of Compliant. Cardiac Science was negligent in not reading or understanding the Patent License Agreement. As of this date I have received no notification from the Compliant Corporation or Cardiac Science, Inc. regarding the sale, patent royalty payments, patent transfer or any other notification required in the Patent License Agreement.
3. If I am not granted the relief that has been requested, I will suffer irreparable harm. If the Court's restraining order is either denied or delayed, all the common stock involved in the Compliant purchase will be disbursed. Compliant Corporation will be dissolved. As a consequence, it will be impossible for me to track down and retrieve damages from the 60 individual stockholders. After years of litigation, the only possible relief could come from a judgment for damages against Cardiac Science. At that time Cardiac Science may not have the ability to pay damages due to lack of working capital. Price, Waterhouse questions if Cardiac Science will continue to be an ongoing concern.

4. The only reliable source of funds to pay for my damages are currently in the "lock-up" trust.
5. The Restraining Order that I seek will not harm the Defendant in any way. A review of the facts will show that irreparable harm to me far outweighs any harm that may be suffered by Cardiac Science. This Court Order will give Cardiac Science the time and opportunity to review the due diligence in conjunction with Compliant. A fresh look should furnish both Compliant as seller and Cardiac Science as buyer, the opportunity to meet the obligations to me as found in the Patent License Agreement.

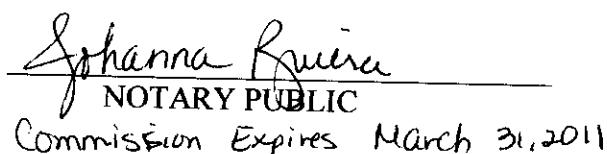

For all of the foregoing reasons, the Plaintiff's Motion for an Ex Parte, Emergency Temporary Restraining Order should be granted.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

DONALD C. HUTCHINS
